Shankaracharya asks for protection of temple town Puri's 'spiritual identity'

Urges PM, Odisha CM to ensure halt to 'destruction' of heritage in the name of development

BHUBANESWAR, MAY 25 /-/- Shankaracharya of Puri Nischalananda Saraswati Wednesday sought protection of the temple town of Puri's 'spiritual ideals' and existence. Saraswati urged both Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Odisha chief minister Naveen Patnaik to ensure a halt to "destruction" of heritage "under the grab development". The Puri seer's statement, released through a video message, came a day after separate delegations of the state government headed by Dibyasingha Deb, former ruler of Puri and another group of leaders and cultural activists met him. The Shankaracharya on May 23 had also released a similar video where he expressed deep concern over alleged damages to the 12th century shrine in the name of development. The Prime Minister and chief minister should give attention to the fact that the Puri is being ruined in the name of development. Mutts are being demolished for widening roads... (this) is not right. The administration should stop implementing its plan immediately, the statement said. Ruling BJD spokesperson Lenin Mohanty in an apparent counter-statement said the Srimandir Parikrama Project was prepared and recommended by the Srimandir Managing Committee with all plans out in the public domain. He pointed out that the National Monument Authority (NMA) gave all required permissions and it was passed by the Odisha assembly unanimously. The administration should also express regret over damages done to the places of worship and ensure that these kind of steps are not taken in future. Narayan. Narayan, the Shankaracharya said in the video.

While expressing deep anguish over the way the state government's Puri Heritage Corridor Project is being implemented, the seer said "all are in favour of development, but we do not want the heritage site to lose its identity" in the name of development. It is not acceptable to destroy heritages in the name of development, he said. Referring to the ruling BJD, which has been ruling the state for over two decades in Odisha, the Shankaracharya said, the administration should not think of itself as all-powerful because the public mandate may change any time. "Odisha people have trust in this government... But people's opinion may change," the seer cautioned without talking name of BJD.

Puri should not be made a centre of 'sura-sundari', the seer said adding that the sea beach, which is the place of meditation has already become a place for sura-sundari (wine and women). He also warned the people that tarnishing image of the Puri-dham and attack on its spiritual ideal may invite trouble for the entire state. Immediately after the Shankaracharya's statement, the opposition BJP and Congress rallied against the government and demanded immediate stop of the ongoing corridor project work. Odisha unit of BJP termed the corridor project work as illegal as permission from the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) has not been taken and demanded suspension of all works. The government has never been transparent in its plan for the project, said BJP spokesperson Jatun Mohanty. BJD spokesperson Mohanty asserted the plan was prepared and public opinion elicited. Thereafter, the plan was recommended by the managing committee. The Srimandir Parikrama Plan was then taken to the people of Odisha in the Odisha Legislative Assembly, where it was passed unanimously by all MLAs without any opposition, it said. Mohanty also said the "ASI gave certain suggestions which were duly incorporated and modifications done (to the plan) accordingly." (PTI)

State minister appears before CBI for 2nd time

KOLKATA, MAY 25 /-/- West Bengal minister Partha Chatterjee Wednesday appeared before the CBI here for interrogation in connection with its probe into the alleged irregularities of appointments in government-run and aided schools by West Bengal School Service Commission (WBSSC). Chatterjee, who was the education minister when the alleged illegal appointments were made, on Wednesday answered to questions related to the issue at the Central agency's office in Nizam Palace. He reached the CBI office in the morning and was questioned by the investigation officers for around eight hours, according to sources. Earlier in the day, the sources said Chatterjee will be asked the same questions for which his answers did not match with those by the members of the advisory panel in connection with the scam. The members of the advisory panel, which was constituted by the West Bengal school education department in November, 2019 for monitoring pending recruitments of teaching and non-teaching staff in the schools, were questioned by CBI sleuths earlier. "We had asked Chatterjee questions on Wednesday last week when he appeared before us but his answers did not match with those of the members of the advisory panel. That is why we will ask him the same questions. He will also be asked questions related to Paresh Adhikari's daughter's appointment as a teacher in a government aided school. We are trying to find out Chatterjee's links to all these," a CBI officer told newsmen. (EOIC with PTI inputs)
